MICHIGAN PHILHARMONIC

Nan Washburn, Music Director & Conductor

Celebrate the 2016-2017 concert season with the Michigan Philharmonic. Under the direction of Conductor Nan Washburn, the Michigan Philharmonic is a regional orchestra performing throughout Western Wayne County. With an emphasis on innovative classical music performance, which includes contemporary repertoire and multi-cultural programming, the Michigan Philharmonic reaches audiences of all ages through a variety of concerts and educational programming. Whether you are a "seasoned subscriber" or new to our program we invite you to check us out – we know you will find lots of great music to enjoy!

Nan Washburn, Music Director & Conductor

Since 1999, Nan has won 19 ASCAP Awards for Adventuresome Programming of Contemporary Music from the League of American Orchestras and in 2014 was awarded First Place in the American Prize for Conducting, while the Michigan Philharmonic received 2nd Place for Professional Orchestras in 2015.

Nan Washburn
Music Director and Conductor

Our 71st season features:

- Four summer concerts and an 8 concert season with numerous repeats, featuring classical, pops and multi-cultural concerts throughout SE Michigan.
- A special emphasis on the performance of music by women composers.
- An award-winning educational program that includes musician visits to the classroom and special concert performances for 3rd and 4th-graders in 5 different school districts.
- The Michigan Philharmonic Youth Orchestra with over 100 students ages 8-18.

The Michigan Philharmonic is committed to reaching out to a broad and diverse array of audiences and providing enjoyable cultural and social experiences, while encouraging anyone who loves live music events to "Spend the Night with Michigan Phil!"
